

Introductory watchmaking workshop

The Fondation de la Haute Horlogerie, whose mission is to promote and transmit watchmaking culture, is pleased to present the FHH Academy, its entity dedicated to watchmaking training worldwide. The FHH Academy offers a range of training courses, lectures, courses and workshops with the aim of acquiring the essential skills and knowledge related to the world of fine watchmaking.

Synopsis

The workshop can welcome up to 12 participants

Become a watchmaker for the time of a workshop...

Accompanied by watchmaking professionals, this workshop immerses you in the world of the infinitely small.

From gears to springs, from escapements to balances, you will have the pleasure of dismantling and reassembling by yourself each component of the UNITAS 6497-1 movement. You will discover with emotion the heart of a mechanical watch beating again.

No exam is planned.

A certificate of attendance is issued at the end of the training for all the participants who have attended the entire course.

Objectives

The introductory watchmaking workshop allows you to discover and understand the watchmaker's profession.

The objectives of the module are :

Participants will be able to describe succinctly how a simple mechanical watch works.

Participants will be able to perform the key steps necessary to disassemble and reassemble a mechanical movement.

For whom?

This training is intended for any adult interested in the watchmaking field and does not require any prerequisites. Children under 14 years of age must be accompanied by a parent.

Length of the course

The introductory watchmaking workshop lasts 3 hours.
